General information for all our trips

Activities: We require that you actively take part in the program of the trip you booked, i. e. that you help with the children's program, with renovation or construction projects or other practical work we do in the country. We require your willingness to integrate into a team and to work together. Physical health and emotional stability are prerequisites. And finally, do not forget that flexibility and humor are very helpful. Use the gifts you have – everybody is needed!

Passport: For trips into Non-European countries you need a passport that is still valid for a minimum of six months. For Latvia, an identity card is enough.

Vaccinations: For Uganda, special vaccinations are required. You will get further information when you register for that particular trip.

Visa (EU): The visa application needs to be made online. You will receive the visa when entering the country, after presenting your documents and paying the requested amount. For Haiti you need the ESTA form, when you fly via the U.S. For all the other trips, no visa is necessary. If you are no citizen of the EU you have to inform yourself if you need a visa.

Travel Services: German speaking project leader, transfer from and to the airport in the country you visit, full board and lodging, excursions as described.

Application fee: An application fee will be due after your registration. You will get further information about it after you register.
